

Derryl Wayne Stapler Obituary

Derryl Wayne Stapler was born in Hammond, Indiana on June 15, 1960. On February 27, 2013 God called him home at the age of 52. Derryl proudly served his country in both the US Army and the US Navy. He was employed in the petroleum industry and was a mixer for Texas Pipeline. He enjoyed being outdoors and often would go fishing and hunting. He was a marksman and spent time at the firing range, quiet time was spent reading a good book, he loved to watch a good movie and the love of his life was all the little children and his family. Grandparents Andrew and Lona Nelson, Howard and Reathel Poe, niece Bailey Ann and a cousin Dale Lindsey all precede Derryl in death. Derryl is survived by his parents Junior and Levern Nelson, sister and brother-in-law Sheila Flournoy and Jerry Dominy, brother and sister-in-law David and Jacqueline Nelson, Nephews Ryan and Brandon McNeel and Cody Nelson, Niece Cassidy Nelson, Great nieces, AKA "the gruesom twosome," Olivia and Julia McNeel, Aunts and Uncles Leval and W. C. Lindsey, Terri Lynn and Kevin Reed, first cousins Kathie Harkey, Yvonne Lindsey, Tabatha Milstead, and second cousins Teresa Troquille and kids, Nichole Smith and kids, Hailey Burgess, Steven Burgess, and Alexis Coats. Numerous other relatives also survive. Derryl you will be missed and you will be in our hearts forever, because you come from a long line of love. We love you!
