

LaDena Ann Maddox Reading

Born to W.E. and Cathie Maddox on May 2, 1956

Died on August 7, 1985 near Kosse, TX.

Burial at Kosse Cemetary.

Preceded in death by brother, Martin Ellis Maddox.

Survived by parents, W.E. and Cathie Maddox, sisters Janeil Adams and Dennise Roberts and son, Patrick B. Reading, Jr.

Dena spent most of her life in Houston, TX. Growing up in the Ridgecrest subdivision of Spring Branch East, she attended Ridgecrest Elementary, Landrum Junior High and Spring Branch High School. She attended church at Church of Christ on W 34th St. in Northwest Houston. She was a positive, creative person and a talented artist. She married Patrick Reading in October 1975 and welcomed a beautiful son, Patrick, Jr in 1976. The couple divorced in 1978 and she moved to the Mexia-Kosse area to be near her parents who had retired there. She was employed for a time at the Mexia State School. She passed away on August 7, 1985 at the age of 29. A constant and loyal friend who loved to laugh.
