Born October 29, 1939, Bonnie graduated from Spring Branch High School in 1957. She continued her education at Texas Christian University before marrying her high school sweetheart, Don Parsons, then moving to Alabama. Don and Bonnie moved back to Houston in the early 1960's where they remained to raise their children and enjoy life.

Bonnie loved being a mother and housewife and excelled at both jobs. She was a member of Fair Haven United Methodist Church, the church's Explorer Sunday School Class, and Royal Oaks Garden Club, all of which she enjoyed greatly. Bonnie cherished her friends from Spring Branch who lovingly refer to themselves as "The Girls".

Family was Bonnie's priority, and she lived an impeccable life of service to those whom she loved.

Bonnie is survived by her husband, Don Parsons; son, Allen Parsons; daughter Kathleen Parsons, all of whom are eternally grateful for her love and devotion. Bonnie was preceded in death by her father, Samuel Monroe Mott; mother, Ruth Haney Mott, and her sister, Samye Nestlerode.
