
Daniell Wade Loep(1962 - 2013)

Daniell Wade Loep, age 50, passed away unexpectedly on January 28, 2013. Wade's playfulness, sense of humor, and big heart made him easy to like, and he will be missed by many.

Wade was born November 17, 1962, in Houston, Texas. He graduated from Spring Branch Senior High School in 1980, and later earned his Bachelor of Arts in Economics degree from Centenary College of Louisiana in Shreveport, where he was an enthusiastic member and leader in Theta Chi Fraternity. After graduation in 1987, Wade returned to Houston to begin his career in the horticultural industry, following in the footsteps of his father, Dan Loep, owner of a Houston area nursery. Wade worked in a number of management roles in the nursery industry, including the last seventeen years with BWI Companies, Inc. in Houston, Texas. He was active in the Texas Nursery & Landscape Association, and had many friends throughout the nursery community.

Wade married Mary Helen Karamanian (Mangum) Loep, who survives him, on August 13, 1994, in Houston, Texas. Wade was preceded in death by father Daniel Willard Loep. He is survived by mother Mary Elizabeth (Barron) Loep; step-sons Brenton Edward Mangum and wife Nicole Renee Sumrall-Mangum; Nickolas Andrew Mangum. He is survived by sister Jenifer Denise (Loep) Williams and husband Clay Campbell Williams; nieces Hannah Caroline Williams and Elizabeth Anne "Libby" Williams; nephew Sam Campbell Williams; aunts Judy (Barron) Caldwell, Virginia "Ginny" (Barron) Meyer and husband Joy Meyer, Nancy (Loep) O'Donnell, Jane (Loep) Johnson, Janet (Loep) Voight, Cathy (Loep) Selstrom; uncles Nathan "Jack" Loep, and Laurie Loep. Serving as pallbearers are Brenton Mangum, Nickolas Mangum, Andy Teas, Gary Finkelman, David Yeamans, Richard Zalesak, Walter Bevers, and Clay Williams. Services will be held Saturday, February 2nd, at 10:00 AM at Terrace United Methodist Church, 1203 Wirt Road, Hilshire Village, Texas, 77055, with reception to follow. His remains will be rested at the Woodlawn Cemetery, 1101 Antoine Drive, Houston, Texas, 77055.

Published in Houston Chronicle from Jan. 31 to Feb. 1, 2013
