

Kay Wynn Busch Smith

KAY WYNN BUSCH SMITH, 68, passed away peacefully at her home in Houston on Thursday, February 2, 2006. Memorial services will be 2 p.m. Sunday at Memorial Drive United Methodist Church, 12955 Memorial Dr., Houston. Funeral services will also be held at Greenwood Funeral Home in Ft. Worth on Wednesday at 11:30 a.m., burial services to follow at 1:30 p.m. at Acton Cemetery. In lieu of flowers, the family asks that donations be made in her name to the National Marfan Foundation at www.marfan.org. Kay was born in Lake Charles, Louisiana on March 19, 1937. As a teenager, Kay moved with her family to Houston, where she graduated from Spring Branch High School in 1955, making many lifelong friends. After graduating from Texas Christian University, Kay married Robert D. Smith on July 1, 1961. Kay taught middle school English in Ft. Worth for 20 years, and after her retirement, was a very active volunteer for several organizations there. In summer 2005, she returned to Houston to be near her children and grandchildren. Kay was a loyal and generous friend, a wonderful wife, mother and grandmother, and a true blessing to all who knew her. She will be dearly missed. Kay was preceded in death by her husband Bob, her parents E.J. and Martha "Pookie" Busch, and her sisters Brenda Moore and Janie Scheffler. She is survived by her children, Kathryn Simpson and Kent Smith; her son-in-law, Cliff Simpson, and grandchildren Jake and Riley Simpson; her beloved nieces Erin and Ellyn Moore, and nephews Josef and Ben Scheffler; and many devoted cousins and in-laws.
