

Bryan Mizell - Soul mate husband, father, grandfather, and beautiful son, as well as a friend who was loved by all who knew him. Bryan loved Jesus and spending time with family "making memories", teasing the children and grandchildren, reading, and hunting. He dearly loved his wife and soul mate, Judy Francis Mizell; he adored and cherished her. They spent every day together loving, laughing, sharing and devoted to each other through good times and bad, and all of life's adventures! Even after 23 years, their eyes still radiated love when they were together or were talking about each other.

Bryan is preceded in death by his father; Lyman Mizell; grandparents; and grandson; William Bryan Mizell, II. He is survived by his loving wife, Judy Francis Mizell; his mother, Latayne Mizell; sons, Gary Bryan (Kaile) Mizell and their children, Ryan Mizell, and Collin Taylor (Helen) Mizell and their children; daughters, Brandy Jan-Maria Mizell (Jonathan) Davis, Heather Lea (Jeffery "Lynn") Guill and their children, Holly Noelle (Shannon) Thompson and their son, Caitlyn Elizabeth Mizell, and bonus daughter, Neva (Luke) Alejandro and their children; 19 living grand children; two sisters, Sherrill (Brad) Evans and Lynna Dee (Steve) Peterson, and numerous nieces and nephews.

His friends, acquaintances, and all who knew him describe him as sweet, thoughtful, beautiful, and brilliant man who was fun to be around and loved by all who knew him. He left a large footprint and will be deeply missed by all.
