

OBITUARY

Linda Sue Williams

NOVEMBER 5, 1949 - JUNE 17, 2023

Linda Williams, a beloved wife, mother, grandmother, and cherished soul, peacefully passed away on June 17, 2023. After bravely battling ALS, she has found respite from her pain. Though our hearts ache with her departure, we take solace in knowing she is now embraced by eternal peace in the loving arms of Jesus.

Linda was preceded in death by her mother and father, Irene and JD Evans, her brother-in-law, Doyle Green and her beloved husband of 48 years, Jerry Williams. Linda is survived by her sister, Judy Green, her children, Jerry Williams and his wife Stephanie, and Shelley Cooley and her husband Chris. She leaves behind her special granddaughters Blakely Irving, Camry Irving, Lauren Olivier and her husband Colby Olivier, and Lindsey Williams, and grandsons Austin Cooley, Max Cooley and Peter Cooley, plus numerous relatives and friends.

Throughout her life, Linda exemplified strength, resilience, and unwavering faith. Her bold spirit and enduring love touched the lives of all who knew her. She faced adversity with grace, inspiring those around her to face their own challenges with determination and courage.

Linda will be remembered for her loyalty and selflessness. She poured her heart into her role as a wife, mother and grandmother, guiding and shaping her children's and grandchildren's lives with love and wisdom.
