

Diana Douglass Red was born on the 9th of July 1948, and died on Monday, the 18th of July 2011, in Houston, Texas.

She attended River Oaks Elementary, Lanier Jr. High, and Spring Branch High School. Diana was a citizen of The Brookwood Community for the last twenty-two years, where she was an artisan/craftsman in the stonecasting enterprise. She was known for her sense of humor and her love of her friends, traveling, gambling, and Coca-Cola.

She was predeceased by her mother, Alice M. Red, and her father, George P. Red. She is survived by her sister, Alice R. Calvin and her husband Aubrey; her niece, Claire Diana Calvin and her husband Matthew; her nephew, Edward Aubrey Calvin and his wife Robyn; and numerous great nieces and nephews. She is also survived by first cousins, Paula Schur and her husband Gary, Walter Dueuease and his wife Marsha, Charles Marsh, Andrea Marsh, Samuel Red and his wife Darla Rae, Martha Red, and Stuart Red and his wife Lynn.